5 October 1983

MEMORANDUM FOR: Director, FBIS

THROUGH : Chief, Operations Group

SUBJECT : Monthly Report — Abidjan Bureau — September 1983

I. OPERATIONS

Editorial/Monitorial

1. After an exceptionally busy summer, September proved to be a relatively quiet month. This was fortunate as one of the bureau's ten monitors was out with long-scheduled leave, another was in Washington for the FSN orientation program, and a third came down with a case of the mumps.

2. In Upper Volta, President Sankara consolidated his control over the government by retiring a large number of army officers, civil servants, and police officials, as announced by Ouagadougou radio. He also made his first visits outside the country. On the 22d, Sankara went to Mali. Ouagadougou radio carried the leaders' speeches, a communique and the text of an agreement submitting the two countries' long-standing border dispute to the International Court of Justice. Sankara subsequently visited Niger for talks with Head of State Kountche, reported by Niamey radio. On 2 October, the bureau reopened on Sunday evening after normal close of business to cover a Sankara policy statement. The statement, which lasted an hour and 20 minutes, turned out to be lacking in priority material, so only an FYI was filed that evening. Five takes of excerpts were processed the following day.

3. On the 19th, the Embassy political officer was notified of an item received from Tel Aviv Bureau from the daily MA'ARIV saying that the Ivory Coast Government would in mid-October announce the resumption of diplomatic relations with Israel. The item was translated into French for the GOIC and dispatched expeditiously. Earlier, an editorial which the bureau translated from the 3 September issue of the Abidjan daily FRATERNITE MATIN criticizing the Gulf Cooperation Council for cutting off ties with African countries which restored relations with Israel, had been discussed at a Country Team meeting. Embassy officers felt the editorial was "exceptionally strong" on this topic, perhaps foreshadowing renewed relations.

4. On the 15th, Yaounde Domestic Service in French carried the text of a speech by President Paul Biya at an extraordinary party congress electing him to replace former President Ahidjo, now retired in France. Ahidjo's resignation from the party chairmanship, which he had continued to hold after leaving the presidency, climaxed a dispute between the two men and evidently put Biya in firm control.

II. ADMINISTRATION

New Bureau Vehicle

On the 28th the bureau took possession of a new Peugeot station wagon, which increases the bureau's fleet of official vehicles to three. We are still awaiting delivery of a replacement for the bureau sedan. The new sedan should be available sometime in October.
